of Goulais River, Heyden and Sault Ste Marie,

Au nom du Parti conservateur de l'Ontario, j'aimerais indiquer que nous sommes opposés à ces mesures, qui visent à ajouter des impôts aux autres impôts versés par les gens de l'Ontario. Les effets de ces impôts seront très sévères pour n'importe quelles personnes et pour n'importe quelles entreprises dans n'importe quelles régions de l'Ontario.

En réalité, c'est un impôt supplémentaire que les gens de l'Ontario doivent verser, soit directement, soit avec des augmentations de prix dans chaque petite entreprise et chaque magasin. De plus, c'est là un véritable changement de relations économiques et financières entre le gouvernement du Canada et le gouvernement de l'Ontario — et sans négociations. Alors, voilà une autre crise dans les relations fédérales et provinciales au sujet des impôts et de ce qui a trait aux finances.

Au cours des dernières semaines, nous avons entendu les réponses de la part des organismes des petites entreprises ici en Ontario. Tous ces organismes se sont opposés à ces mesures fiscales imposées par le gouvernement libéral de l'Ontario.

Dans chaque région, par exemple à Timmins, à Iroquois Falls, à Matheson, à Essex-Sud, à Niagara-on-the-Lake, dans chaque municipalité et dans chaque région, il y a beaucoup de gens qui ont des craintes quant à l'avenir de notre province du point de vue économique, à cause de ces impôts, à cause de la politique économique du gouvernement libéral de l'Ontario, et surtout à cause de la politique économique du gouvernement du Canada.

Il faut que les membres du Conseil des ministres de M. Peterson, ici en Ontario, et ceux du Conseil des ministres de M. Mulroney à Ottawa répondent à ces questions et à ces craintes. Il faut également que le gouvernement libéral explique à ces gens les effets que ces impôts auront dans leur vie. Il faut enfin que le gouvernement nous explique l'avenir de la politique économique de l'Ontario.
